REIGN OF TERROR AT ODESSA.

Strikers Acting With Russian Mutineers Awed Troops.

A cablegram from Odessa to a London news agency, dated Wednesday night, says: "The whole of the quays and buildings. around the harbor, as well as much shipping, are in flames, mobs of incendlaries preventing the fire brigade working. Troops are kept at hay and are afraid to approach within reach of the Kniaz Potekine's guns, which threaten a disastrous bombardment. The city is appallingly illuminated by burning buildings, and terror prevails everywhere. Sleep is impossible and everybody where. Sleep is impossible and everybody is watching and waiting. The whole garrison has been requisitioned for patrol duty. It is thought that it may become necessary to summon foreign warehips for the protection of the foreign colonies. Tuesday night's collisions between the mobs and the police and military resulted in the loss of seventeen lives, including three policemen."

tains further particulars of the mutiny on the Russian ship, a report of which was printed in The Star yesterday. It says that the red flag of revolution is hoisted at the masthead of the Kniaz Potemkine, Russia's most powerful battle ship in the Black sea, which now lies in the harbor in the hands of mutineers.

The ship is completely in the possession of the crew and a few officers who have thrown in their lot with the mutineers.

The guns of the Kniaz Potemkine comof striking workmen who yesterday fled before the volleys of the troops are now inflamed by the spectacle of open revolt on board an imperial warship, and are making a bold front against the military.

All day long firing has been heard in many quarters of the city. A number of barricades have been erected and tumuit and disorder reign. The main squadron of the Black sea fleet, consisting of the battle ships Georgei Pobledonosetz (George the Victorious), Tri Svia-titelia, Rostislav and Ekaterina II, with two cruisers, are expected to arrive here tonight and a regular naval battle is in prospect.

The rioters are in a most deflant mood, Reports of the mutiny, which occurred while the battle ship was at sea, are nifficult to obtain, as the mutineers refuse to allow communication with the shore; but it is ascertained that it arose from the shooting of a sailor who was presenting on behalf of the crew a complaint against bad food. According to one version, this sailor, whose name was Omiltchuk, objected to the quality of the "borchtch," or soup, and was immediately shot down by a mess officer. The crew then rose and seized the ship and the officers, eight of whom were spared on condition that they would join the mutineers. The others were killed and their bodies thrown overboard.

After a period of vacillation the Kniaz Potemkine headed for Odessa and arrived there Wednesday night, accompanied by two torpedo boats. Early today the body of Omiltchuk was brought ashore in one of the battle ship's boats and was landed on the new mole, where it has been exposed in semi-state all day. It w s visited by thou-sands of persons, many of whom placed coins in a basket at the head of the body toward a fund to defray the cost of the funeral, which the sailors propose to hold

An inscription on the breast of the dead sailor states on behalf of the crew that Omiltehuk died for the truth because he presented a just complaint of the crew. The strike is now general in the city and the rioters are growing in numbers and boldness. There were exchanges of shots all day, but the number of victims cannot be stated. This evening a bomb was thrown in Cathedral Palace, killing its thrower and a policeman.

A telegram from the mayor of Odessa, who is at Moscow, imploring the citizens to restore order, has been posted throughout the city. During the day one of the torpedo boats which accompanied the Kniaz Potemkine came into the harbor and seized the Russian steamer Esperanza. The steamer was laden with 2,000 tons of coal, which the battle ship is taking on board. The governor has telegraphed for a squadron to be sent from Sabastopol. A cablegram from St. Petersburg last night says: More serious in its possible ef-fects than all the defeats in Manchuria or the destruction of Rojestvensky's fleet was was floating on board one of the emperor's battle ships in the harbors of Odessa, and that with shotted guns the mutinous crew headed by eight officers was holding the ship against all comers.

ship than any in Kruger's squadron, and the gravity of the situation is increased by the fact that the city is practically in possession of the strikers, who, according to the dispatches, had already been encouraged to open resistance by the mutiny of the sailors, and were erecting barricades and fighting the police and the troops in the streets.

Pardon Board Refused to Commute Her The Pennsylvania state board of pardons, at Harrisburg, yesterday afternoon, finally disposed of the case of Mrs. Kate Edwards. the Berks county woman under sentence of death for the murder of her husband, by refusing to grant her a commutation. There is no appeal from the decision of the board, which has twice before refused to commute the woman's sentence, and Gov.

Pennypacker will fix the date of her execution later. The case of Samuel Greason, the woman's negro paramour, which has been before the board for more than two years, was stricken from the list. Greason was convicted of first degree murder, sentenced to be hanged, refused a commutation and afterward given a new trial and acquitted on the strength of a confession made by the woman last winter that he had nothing to do with the murder. Mrs. Edwards was on April 26, 1902, sentenced to be hanged, and three weeks tatel tenced to be hanged, and three weeks later the first application for a commutation was filed. The application was based on the ground that she was an epileptic at the time of the killing and was therefore not responsible for the crime. The affidavits of two distinguished physicians to this effect were presented by her attorneys at the final argument yesterday. A petition containing 250,000 signatures, asking that her sentence be commuted, was presented by Mrs. Anna Fitch of Cleveland.

It is reported that the final vote on the
